2. The Catastrophic Event

2.1 The Incident

On the night of March 14, 2021, during a sold‑out residency at the renowned Club Nova, a sudden power surge caused a massive electrical fault. The resulting fire quickly engulfed the venue's interior, forcing an emergency evacuation. While the venue's safety protocols were largely effective, the incident left the duo's equipment severely damaged and the event abruptly cancelled.

In the immediate hours following the fire, the duo's social media accounts were flooded with messages of concern. Fans expressed shock, while industry peers offered support. The duo's record label announced a temporary pause on all upcoming releases, citing the need to reassess safety protocols and secure new equipment.

2.3 Legal and Insurance Complications
