In this article, we'll explore the origins of the collection, its guiding principles, flagship properties, and what sets it apart from other luxury hospitality brands.

Origins: From a Personal Vision to a Global Phenomenon

The story of the Mr. and Mrs. Smith Hotel Collectionbegins in 2006, when the visionary couple behind the brand—Mr. and Mrs. Smith—identified a gap in the market for boutique accommodations that offered more than just a room. They wanted to create a network of hotels that reflected local culture, sustainable practices, and a commitment to exceptional guest experiences. Their first property, a restored Victorian townhouse in New York City, set the tone for what would become a global collection.

Over the past decade, the collection has expanded to include properties in major cities like London, Tokyo, and Paris, as well as hidden gems in smaller towns. Each property is carefully selected to embody the unique spirit of its location while maintaining the high standards that guests have come to expect from the brand.
